

“Our relationship with God is partly measured by our relationship with others.” One of the most difficult obstacles to get around was admitting that I needed my sister or brother in the Lord. I kept myself closed off to others for fear of being hurt. My desire is that “Digging for Gold” will bring freedom and liberty to others that struggle with establishing loving, lasting relationships in the Body of Christ. “Digging for Gold” sheds light on the importance of building “Kingdom Relationships”, you and I working together to advance God’s plan and purpose in the earth. But seek ye first the kingdom.. (Matt 6:33)
