

Robin Michelle Manley is a single parent of two beautiful girls, Jasmyne and Jerika Williams. Robin is finally completing a degree she started over twenty years ago, proving that it is never too late to return to school. She is currently attending the same college that her mother, Geneva Reynolds, graduated from when Robin was just 4 years old--North Carolina Wesleyan College--majoring in Criminal Justice and Psychology. Robin's oldest daughter is currently a student at NCWC also. Robin credits her relationship with God as the reason she was able to remain strong after the end of her 15 year marriage. Robin continues to pursue her dream to write books, skits, plays and one day, movies that will inspire, uplift and encourage people to have faith in God. She is the co-owner of I feel Ya! Productions. She is currently working on a play entitled Delivered With Uplifted Hands. This book is a work of fiction inspired by real life experiences. Except for brief mentioning of world renowned preachers and their specific sermons all other characters are a product of the author's imagination. Any resemblance to real persons or events is purely coincidental.
